Basic Linux System Administration

This course will be an introduction to the administration of Linux systems, with emphasis on security for networked systems. Topics to be covered include: installation and configuration of Linux distributions, typical maintenance activities, and security measures for networked systems. Students will have access to lab machines for hands on practice.

Graduate level study will include additional coursework.

Prerequisite: CS 306 with a grade of C or better, or graduate level study.